Sherry Chapman Called the Meeting to Order

✨ Summary

The meeting focused on organizing efforts for ballot petitions, discussing election integrity issues, and planning strategies for upcoming elections. Key topics included scheduling signature collection days, addressing concerns about election processes and training for election officials, ongoing legal actions against Act Blue, financial transparency, internal party divisions, and community engagement. Decisions were made regarding candidate support, event planning, and the need for active participation to maintain party integrity.

📋 Outline

1. Ballot Petitions and Signature Collection • 0:00:01

- A sign-in sheet and a clipboard for ballot petitions were circulated, with Ray needing 800 signatures and David needing approximately 1430.
- Members were encouraged to sign up for signature collection days in November and December, particularly at the beginning and end of the month.

2. Importance of Elections • 0:01:08

- The speaker emphasized the significance of elections and the need to maintain the Republican Party's integrity in light of potential voter influx from other states.
- Members were urged to attend BOCC meetings to hold officials accountable and advocate for change.

3. Election Integrity Report • 0:03:25

- Diane presented an election integrity report, highlighting her group's significant accomplishments in the area.

- The speaker noted Diane's desire for more support in her efforts, indicating a need for collaboration.

4. Issues with Election Officials • 0:04:41

- Concerns were raised about misinformation shared by Cord Bird regarding vote-by-mail procedures and the SAVE program for verifying citizenship.
- The speaker reported that many SOEs lack training on the SAVE program, which is crucial for maintaining accurate voter rolls.

5. Chain of Custody in Elections • 0:09:55

- The discussion highlighted the lack of proper chain of custody in election processes, with evidence from multiple counties indicating significant gaps.
- A letter addressing these concerns was drafted and signed by several influential individuals to draw attention to the issues.

6. Recent Changes in the Republican Party • 0:12:13

- Several members were removed from the REC, including Lou Miron, raising concerns about the integrity of the party's leadership.
- A press conference/protest was planned to address these changes and rally support among affected members.

7. Misinformation and AI Concerns • 0:16:59

- The reliability of information from AI sources like Grok was questioned, particularly regarding the cancellation of the RPOF meeting.
- Members were advised to be cautious about the accuracy of information shared through AI platforms, as it may be influenced by biased inputs.

8. Legal Actions Against Act Blue • 0:19:50

- Chris Gleason is actively involved in lawsuits against Act Blue and Cord Bird, highlighting issues of misrepresentation of donor sources.
- James O'Keefe is associated with the investigation into Act Blue's activities, and additional videos on the topic are available for sharing.

9. Election Integrity Concerns • 0:22:10

- David Becker, previously involved in cleaning voter rolls in Florida, is now promoting Dominion Voting Systems, raising concerns about election security.
- There are ongoing discussions about the proprietary source code similarities between Dominion and Smartmatic, which originated from Venezuela.

10. Financial Report • 0:24:14

- The financial report indicated a balance of $935 as of the meeting date, with previous low balances highlighting financial growth.
- The importance of financial transparency and accountability within the organization was emphasized.

11. Internal Party Divisions • 0:25:18

- Certain podcasters are causing divisions within the Republican Party by criticizing established members, which needs to be addressed.
- The need for unity and a clear message from party members was stressed to prevent further fragmentation.

12. Election Strategies • 0:27:35

- There is a push for a one-day voting system with strict ID requirements and limited mail-in voting to enhance election integrity.
- Members were encouraged to recruit poll workers and watchers to ensure fair election processes and address issues encountered during voting.

13. Upcoming Events and Candidate Support • 0:35:19

- The group will not hold a December meeting but will participate in a Christmas party, with details to be finalized.
- Candidates are encouraged to start their campaigns early in the new year to secure funding and support from party members.

14. Community Engagement • 0:39:50

- Concerns were raised about the influx of new residents potentially shifting Florida's political landscape.
- The importance of engaging with new community members to maintain party values and prevent the adoption of opposing policies was highlighted.
